Welsh Government Housing Policy – Regulation

Regulatory Judgement

Coastal Housing Group – L146

December 2019

The Welsh Ministers have powers under Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996 to regulate Registered Social Landlords in relation to the provision of housing and matters relating to governance and financial management.

The Welsh Ministers are publishing this Regulatory Judgement under sections 33A and 35 of the Housing Act 1996.

The judgement is published in accordance with the Regulatory Framework for Registered Social Landlords in Wales and the related performance standards.

The judgement is based upon the Association's own evaluation of its compliance with the performance standards together with regulatory intelligence gained through on-going, co-regulatory, relationship management between the Regulator and the Association.

Basis of Judgement

This judgement is designed to provide the Registered Social Landlord, its tenants, service users and other stakeholders with an understanding of its financial viability and how well it is performing, at a specific moment in time, in relation to:

- Governance and Service Delivery
- Financial Management

The judgement must not be relied upon by any other party for any other purpose. The Registered Social Landlord is responsible for the completeness and accuracy of information provided to the Regulator.

Profile

The Group comprises Coastal Housing Group Limited (“Coastal” or “the Group”), the parent company, and its subsidiary, Pennant Housing Association Limited (trading as Pennant Homes). Both are RSLs, with Coastal providing general needs homes for rent. The principal activity of Pennant Homes is the management of the Group’s home ownership activity.

Coastal was created following a merger of Swansea Housing Association and Dewi Sant Housing Association in 2008. Coastal is registered under the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 and has charitable rules. Pennant Homes is a non-charitable RSL.

As at March 2019, the Group owns and manages 5,814 homes, including 966 homes for older people (including two extra care schemes), 126 adapted homes and 388 homes via the Welsh Housing Partnership, and provides services to 175 leaseholders. It operates in four local authority areas in Wales - Swansea, Neath Port Talbot, Carmarthenshire and Bridgend.
